

Conflicts of Interest in the context of Court of Protection and capacity work

Richard Dew, Barrister, Ten Old Square

We are delighted to be joined by Richard Dew, an experienced Barrister focussing on Wills, Estates, Trusts and related professional negligence, as well as being an expert on Court of Protection matters.

Richard will be discussing the topic of conflicts of interest in the context of Court of Protection and mental capacity work. In this seminar, Richard will be covering:

- The position generally regarding conflicts of interest
- The impact of Re ACC
- Re PW: what has the court decided and what are the implications?
- Conflicts of interest beyond the Court of Protection

We look forward to seeing you; nibbles and refreshments will be provided after the event.
