CoPPA London is delighted to invite you to its next seminar and networking drinks, at which our speakers will lead a discussion, through the medium of case studies, about the issues which arise when someone who lacks (or may lack) mental capacity becomes involved in litigation.

Topics covered will include:

- The legal test for capacity to litigate
- The role of deputies, attorneys and litigation friends
- Where the Court of Protection does and doesn't need to be involved
- Settlement & costs considerations

The session is intended to be practical and interactive, and an opportunity for attendees to share their experience with like-minded professionals.
